

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,
Plaintiff,

v.

MICHAEL YANOVSKY,
Defendant.

No. CR 07-0037 SI

[PROPOSED] STIPULATED ORDER
RE: HOME DETENTION

Mr. Yanovsky's supervision in the above-entitled case has been transferred to the Northern District of California from the District of California. As part of his sentence in his Oregon case, he was ordered to adhere to a home detention schedule prescribed by the Probation Officer. See United States v. Michael Yanovsky, CR 04-30060-01 HO (D. Or. Nov. 11, 2006) (Ord. Judgment & Commitment).

The defendant is now employed in a position that requires travel outside of the Northern District of California. He has petitioned this Court to modify his home confinement conditions, to permit him to travel outside of the Northern District if he first notifies his supervising Probation Officer, and has the approval of that officer. The Court is informed that the defendant's supervising probation officer has no objection to this requested modification.

Therefore, for good cause shown, Michael Yanovsky may leave his home and the Northern District of California for work-related trips during his period of home confinement, if: 1. he has first notified his supervising probation officer of his proposed itinerary, and 2. his supervising probation officer has approved the itinerary and given permission for the trip.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
